DIRECTORS' CODE OF BUSINESSCONDUCT AND ETHICS REINSURANCE GROUP OF AMERICA, INCORPORATED

The Board of Directors of Reinsurance Group of America, Incorporate ther with its subsidiaries por Dw this "Code") for Directors of RGA. For the purposes of this Code, a "Director" refers to any person serving as a member of the

Conflict of Interest

Directors must avoid ituations that may give rise to any actual, potential or apparefitcts of interestwith RGA. A "conflict of interest" occurs when a Director vivate interest interferes in any way with the interests of RGA as a whole addition to avoiding conflicts of interest, Directors should also avoid even the appearance of a conflict. This Code does not attempt to describe all possible conflicts of interest that could develop. Some of the more common conflicts that Directors must resolve or avoid, however, are set out below:

- x A conflict situation can arise when a Director omember of a Director's familytakes actions or has interestisat may make it difficult for the irector of make decisions on behalf of RGA objectively and effectively.
- x A conflict of interestcan also arise when a Director or a member of a Director's family receives improper personal between a result of the Director's position at RGA.
- x Directors shall notify the Chairof the Board as promptly as practicable of any situation involving, or that may reasonably be expected to involve, a conflict of interest with RGA, and shall in any event not participate in any decision by the Boardesignated Board committee) that in any way relates to the matter that givies to the conflict of interest.

Corporate Opportunities

Directorsowe a duty to RGA to advancets legitimate interests.

Directors are prohibited from (a) taking for themselves opportunities that are discovered through the use of corporate property, information or position, (b) using corporate property, information or position for personal gain, and (c) competing with RGA for business opportunities the Board first determines that RGA will not pursue the opportunity.

Confidentiality

Directors have access to RGA's most sensitive information. Director, during such Director's term of office, and after departing the Board, must maintain the confidentiality of information entrusted to such Director by RGA and any other confidential information about RGA that comes to such Director, from whatever source, in his or her capacity as a Director, except to those people who have an appropriate reason to have access to the information. For purposes of this Code, "Confidential Information" includes all nonpublic information that might be of use to competitors, create an unfair

38960.10

If a Director becomes legally compelled to disclose any Confidential Information, he or she shallprovideRGA with promptnoticeof suchrequirementsoRGA may seet protective orderor other appropriate emedy and/or waive compliance with this provision cases where public disclosure of information is appropriate or necessary, RGA has policies and procedures that are reasonably designed to provide broad not exclusionary distribution of such information the public.

Compliance with Laws, Rules and Regulations

Directorsshall comply with laws, rules and regulations

38960.10

subject of a press release or a public filing with $1exeurities and Exchange Commissioned, in all cases, at least 48 hours has pasinged the publication, release or filing.

In order to ensure that RGA or its Directors do not violate applicable insider tradingrrthes Policy, the following guidelines must be followed:

- x Directors shall maintain as confidential and not disclose any material public information.
- x Directorsshall not engage in any transaction in RGA securities time when such person is in possession of materiation-publicinformation concerning RGA, or for a period of 48 hours following public disclosure of such information.

Substantial penalties may be assessed against people who trade while in possession of material inside information and can also be imposed upon companies anadlesob controlling persons, such as officers and directors, who fatib take appropriate steps to prevent or detect insider trading violations by their employees or subordinates.

Compliance Procedures

Directors shall communicate any known or suspected violations of this Code, including any violation of law or governmental rule or regulation, promittly Board or Board committee meeting, or to the Chair the Board of Directors, Chair of the Audit Committee meeting. Such persons are conflicted, to any unconflicted Director or the Chief Compliance Of Directors may not fulfill their duties to the Company by reporting concerns anonymously. Directors may request confidential treatment of a reported concern. Confidentiality will be provided to the extent consistent with applicable law, appropriate handling of the matter and the obligation of Directors to be candid with the Board. Alleged violations shall be investigated by the Board or by a person or persons designated by the Board of Directors of RGA and appropriate action shall be taken in the event of any violations of this Code.

Waivers

Waivers of this Code shall be granted only under exceptional circumstances ver of this Code may be made only by the Board of Directors of RGA or a committee of that Board, and must be promptly disclosed in accordance with applicable law and the requirements of the New York Stock Exchange.

38960.10 4